Acres of VALUABLE LAND (ving at, near, and around MEDFORD STATION and BROOKHAYEN VILLAGE SITE, on the Long Island Ratroad, FOR SALE. This is a tract of Land situated in the Fownship of Brookhaven.
Suffolk County, Long Island, laid out on both sides of the Long Island Railroad.

Medford Station is 50 miles from Brooklyn. At present it is the point of communication by Railroad between New-York and the villages of Patchogue, Port Jetlerson and Bellport, as well as other smaller places, and is one of the most important way points on the road. The Station is four miles from Patchogue and ten from Port Jetlerson. As is well known, the Long Island Railroad is one of the ostabished routes between New-York and Boston.

The soil embraces every variety, from pure loam to alightly loamy sand, is susceptible of the highest cultivation, and, from the facilities for obtaining sea weed and fish for manure, as well as materials for composet, it is in avery sespect adapted to moslers agriculture.

The tract is covered with an eak and pine growth of various sizes, and on it are many thousands of cords of vood, large enough for the New-York market. There is also some valuable building timber. Water of the best quality is easy of access.

The southerly boundary is 14 miles from the center of Patchogue; the northerly 9 unless from Long Island Sound.

There are mills, schools and churches within a fow miles, and the country around is iast filing up. It is estimated that within a year over 300 persons have purchased lands in the immediate vicinity, for the purpose of resprovements. In every respect these Lands are worthy the attention of Emigrants, Farmers, dischanics and others.

For the convenience of purchasers, the property has been divided as nearly as passible into TEN-AURE LOTS, which will be sold singly, with the projecte of one or more of the adjoining Lots. The proves have been gradualed from $75 to $300 for a Lot of the nacres and upward.
